

Footprints on the sand of time . . .

Like the Roman Centurion from whom this annual receives its name, we, as mortals, live lives which are but footprints in the sands of time. This sentiment, though not the most pleasant, is one which we must accept, for our existence is but a particle of dust in the universe of time.

Are we then vain to attempt to immortalize our insignificant lives? Does the assured futility of our endeavors render them meaningless? On the contrary, we would like to feel our efforts, expressed through the medium of this yearbook, might convey to others the mood, the essence, of our years at South Windsor High School.

We strive here, then, to weave a net to gather the force of the Wind of the Spirit. This by its very nature is impossible. The force of the wind of the Spirit cannot be caught in a net and given to others. We can only hope that the net may be so tossed and shaken that others seeing it will know that the Wind of the Spirit blows strong.

ITH DEEP APPRECIATION

It is with respect and gratitude that we, the members of the Senior Class, dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Bernard H. Rosen. During four fruitful years in which we have been the beneficiary of his efforts, we have come to realize that Mr. Rosen is more than an "impartor of knowledge"; he is a teacher in the truest sense of that word—the epitome of understanding and benevolence, personifying those qualities which are prime prerequisites of that noble profession to which he has so unselfishly dedicated himself.

Mr. Rosen's sincere interest in his students and in the welfare of the school itself is reflected in his many positive contributions to the extra-curricular life of South Windsor High School. Foremost among these is the Dramatics Club which Mr. Rosen not only originated but skillfully directed during a "touch and go" trial period when its success and indeed the future of this important activity was directly dependent upon the enthusiasm which he alone could generate.

A strong believer in the value of school spirit, Mr. Rosen's attendance record at athletic as well as scholastic activities is admirable and undoubtedly serves as a source of motivation for the students of South Windsor High School.

For these contributions and for many more of a less tangible nature, we of the Senior Class, expressing, we're sure, the sentiments of the entire school, wish to extend our sincerest thanks to Mr. Bernard H. Rosen.

HUGH S. GREER DEDICATION

Mrs. Hugh S. Greer receives a memorial plaque while Mr. Waldron, Mr. Coruolo, and spectators applaud.

Mr. Sherwood Waldron, a player on one of Mr. Greer's first teams, presents a speech in honor of the coach.

A great moment as Mayor John Egan and Mr. Francis Nester of the Board of Education unveil the memorial plaque.

One of the most significant dates in the youthful history of S.W.H.S. is the dedication of the Hugh S. Greer memorial gymnasium. This event ties the tradition of Ellsworth high to new S.W.H.S. Hugh S. Greer was coach at Ellsworth for ten years before going on to become coach of UConn's Huskies. As the dedication plaque was unveiled old memories and new ambitions were brought to mind.

Eagles Overcome South Windsor Five at Arena, 79-67

Big Crowd Marvels At Bobcats' Spirit

By PETE ZANARDI

"It matters not if you win or lose, but how you play the game," wrote the immortal Grantland Rice. No more fitting tribute belongs to Coach Charlie Sharos and his 11th ranked South Windsor High Bobcats today after falling to third rated East Catholic 79-67 last night in a CIAC Class B first-round contest at the Manchester High Arena. A crowd of 1,822 paid to see what has to be the greatest exhibition of "guts" and courage presented on the Arena hardwoods this season.

Few expected the Bobcats to still be in contention deep into the final chapter. There it was with only minutes to go and East holding a slim 67-63 lead. Sharos chewed vigorously on his gum while his chargers fought with valor, but the quintet of Tom Malin, Frank Kinell, Paul Waickowski, Ray LaGace and Larry Daly proved too much to handle. They combined for 12 points to end the game, interrupted only by two South Windsor hoops. East is now 13-1 and South Windsor finishes with a 16-5 mark.

It's into the quarterfinal round against Joel Barlow of Reading Saturday night, site unknown, for East but even the East rooters, showing again the sportsmanship that characterizes their appearance, gave South Windsor the plaudits. As Sharos pulled his starters, they stood in recognition. Jim Baker was top man with 32 points while Jim Rohlin (18) was also in double figures. Ray LaGace had 22 for East, followed by Waickowski (21), Daly (13) and Malin (12) in double figures. East was 30 for 65 from the floor and 19-28 on foul shots and South Windsor was 25 for 60 on baskets and 17 for 23 at the line.

Height Edge

Sharos added a bit of subtle humor by having 5-7 Ron Riordan jump center against 6-8 Waickowski to accent East's height advantage. The Eagles had a 36-32 rebounding edge. Waickowski and Baker each had 14 grabs to lead their teams. Rohlin added eight for South Windsor while Daly had seven for East.

"I couldn't be happier if we won," said Sharos. "I'm just filled with pride for these kids. Boy, they are competitors every inch of the way."

"East was just too big," he continued. "It's tough to keep them out when they've height like they have, and we missed a few shots from around 15 feet that should have gone in." Then he climbed on the bus still showing a wide smile.

East Coach Don Burns was also quick to give South Windsor its due. He called their performance "unbelievable. We'll have to do better in the next one," Burns added. He felt the East performance was below par.

Early Buige

The Eagles moved out to a 27-15 first turn lead with ease, putting 10 notches on the board before South Windsor could score. Then the Bobcat mark was only a foul shot by Ron Riordan and East followed with five more in a row to take a 15-1 lead. Suddenly, the Bobcats came alive matching the Eagles basket for basket the remainder of the period.

Baker hit 14 points in the second frame as South Windsor cut the lead to 46-42 at intermission. At the mid point they rattled off six in a row to make 36-29 and after two East hoops ran another streak on five to be within two, 38-36. East ran eight straight and South followed with six in a row to end the frame.

Baker scored off a steal to open the third canto, Riordan matched it and it was 46-all. Foul trouble began to tell on East and Malin and LaGace sat it out but Daly proved a capable replacement, hitting seven points in the quarter. It remained nip and tuck as Rohlin paced the Bobcats. South Windsor led 50-49 at one point but it was short lived as Daly foul shots and Waickowski's hoop put East back into the lead. A minute to go and East came off a 57-55 lead with six in a row to hold a 63-55 three-quarter margin.

Bobcat Record Book Rewritten by Baker

Not much sense in revising the South Windsor Basketball record book. It would be far easier, after the Bobcats assaulted it this season, to start from scratch and write a new one. Principal reason is Jim Baker, who broke 11 records.

Before the season began, Coach Charlie Sharos predicted that Baker would be an all-star and the 6-2 senior didn't disappoint him. "I still feel Baker rates as an all-state in Class B," Sharos says.

Baker made shambles of the scoring record. He leaves with records for most points in a year (436), in a game (46), in a quarter (22) and in a half (25); most field goals in a game (17), and in a year (171), and most foul shots attempted in a year (126) and a game (14) and most made in a game (13) and in a year (94). His 24.22 average is also a school mark.

The team united for seven more records: most points in a season (1,354) and a game (101), most field goals attempted (532), most foul shots attempted (417) and most made (231) in a season. The 75.2 average points per game and the nine game winning streak at the beginning of the year are also records.

The Bobcats completed their first year in Class B with a 14-4 record to rank in CIAC tournaments rating, then went on to distinguish themselves in the tourney, beating Ellington in the playdowns and fighting East Catholic tooth and nail before losing. Three losses were by a combined six points. They shared the North Central Conference crown with Ellington, both showing 8-2 records.

"It was a very successful season," said Sharos, "with any number of highlights. Being co-champion of the conference was one and the 'rubber' game with the Knights in the tournament was very satisfying."

"Considering the pressure of the tournament and the competition," Sharos continued, "the tourney loss to East Catholic must rate as the big highlight of the year. We lost the game but gained the admiration of thousands of people. We also gained a great deal of prestige out of that game."

Besides Baker, two other players gave Sharos double figure averages. Jim Rohlin, who performed so well in both tournament games, finished up with 292 points for a 16 point per game average and not far behind was Ron Riordan with 262 points and 14.55 per game. Stan Slomcinsky also scored in triple figures with 119 points.

Bobcats Thrill Crowd With Great 'B' Effort

By BRUNO SNIDERS

The Class B schoolboy basketball tournament field is down to eight teams today, but the club they're still talking about is not going to be in the quarter-final.

The toast of the medium school ranks today was South Windsor's beaten Bobcats, who got the biggest ovation of the night as they bowed out gracefully, 79-67, to a powerful East Catholic quintet.

"I couldn't be happier if we won," beamed South Windsor Coach Charlie Sharos as the well-wishers streamed onto the Manchester High floor after the once-beaten Eagles were forced to the limit before subduing the well-drilled Cats.

It will be a long time before East Catholic can forget the two Jims, Baker and Rohlin, who staged an unbelievable comeback only to run out of steam at the end.

"We just didn't have anything left," said Sharos. "I am proud of my kids. They played a great ball game."

The Eagles jumped out front 16-0 before South Windsor managed a single point, a foul shot by little Ron Riordan. The score was 15-1 with less than four minutes gone and you couldn't blame the 2,000 fans for wondering whether they'd be better off at the movies.

Slowly but surely the Bobcats kept cutting into the lead, but were still behind by 15 with five minutes to play in the first half. Then suddenly everybody noticed Baker.

He and Rohlin scored a pair of baskets apiece and pulled within seven, 36-29 at 4:32 remaining in the second period. After a pair of foul conversions by Ray LaGace, Baker strung together six straight points and Ken Goodin added a pair to pull within two points, 38-36.

Baker continued his great play and netted 25 of his 32 points in the first half. It was 46-42, East Catholic ahead, when they retired to the dressing rooms.

A basket by Rohlin and another by Riordan tied it up 46-46 with 6:39 to play, setting up a see-saw battle that saw the Bobcats take the lead twice, 48-47 and 50-49 before the Eagles went ahead to stay on a three-point play by Frank Kinell with 5:13 remaining in the third period.

Rohlin wound up with 18 for the night, while the Eagles were led by LaGace's 22 and Paul Waickowski's 21.
